GLEEFULLY BURNING VICTIMS.

ROAST MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

A London Mission Church in Which Native Christians Had Gathered Burned With Them in it--Reports Indicate That Boxers May be Relaxing Their Efforts.

By Wire to the Telegram

Chefoo, July 11—Reports from Wuching tell of further horrible outrages of the Boxers. At that place they have burned a church of the London mission, when it was filled with helpless converts who had fled to the building for safety. All the men, women and children were burned to death, while the Boxers watched their agonies with delight.

SPLENDID WORK OF COSSACKS.

London, July 10.—According to Dalsell's Agency the allied troops at Tien-Tsin are wearied by the constant fighting, and were it not for the splendid scouting of the Cossacks, they would have been rushed long ago.

A dispatch from Sheng, director of railway telegraphers informs the consuls that he has received a telegram stating that the legations were holding out July 5, and that the number of Boxers had diminished.

CHEFOO A DANGER POINT.

Shanghai, July 11.—Chefoo is now a danger point. Four Chinamen were killed in the streets yesterday. The Europeans are fleeing to Wei-Hai-Wei. The English and American admirals declare that they can't hold Chefoo.

EMPEROR STILL ALIVE.

Shanghai, July 11.—The Emperor is still alive at Pekin, and well, according to the highest authority which declares that he has not been spirited away nor is dead.

ALLIED FORCES HARD PRESSED.

Washington, July 11.—Admiral Remey cables that on Monday that two battalions of the ninth infantry and a battalion of marines landed at Chefoo. Col. Mead landed today and will proceed to Tien-Tsin.

The allied forces at Tien-Tsin engaged in maintaining the defense, are hard pressed.

A MYSTERIOUS PLAGUE.

Over Forty People Dead of it in a Louisiana Parish.

New Orleans, July 10.—President Souchon, of the State board of health, today received a telegram from the president of the parish board of health for Caldwell parish, of which Columbia is the seat, urging that an expert, a quantity of tents, and sanitary inspector be sent to that place at once, as a mysterious plague had broken out there, which was fatal in every instance. The telegram stated that fully forty people, mostly negroes, had already succumbed to the disease.

President Souchon sent Dr. Beard, the State expert, to the scene. It is believed the epidemic is a very malignant one.

Let's Go a Wild Goose Chasing.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

We believe that there are numbers of voters in Guilford county who wish to assert their convictions against legalizing the liquor business in any form, and who will fear to vote "Against the Dispensary" lest it be understood as voting for the saloons. We expect therefore to prepare and send out petitions addressed to our representatives in the legislature, asking them to work for the repeal of the dispensary act and the enactment of a prohibitory law for Guilford county. We want some one or more at every voting-place to take charge of a copy or copies of this petition and be on hand all day, giving every voter an opportunity to sign it.

If you sympathize in the effort, please send me the names of persons in your election precinct who you think would give thorough attention to the matter on election day that I may send them some blanks.

Yours truly,
J. F. McCULLOCH.

The Fighting May Begin at Any Time as the Best Fighting Stock of the State Has Assembled at the Trial of the Goebel Murderers.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Georgetown, Ky., July 11.—Many of the best known fighting men of Kentucky arrived here yesterday. Trouble is expected before night The streets are deserted. Women and children keep closely to their homes and the only men seen are those whose business takes them to the courthouse. The trial of Caleb Powers is being held behind closed doors, and all persons entering are searched for weapons.

Chinese Government Disown Boxers.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, July 11—The Chinese minister brought the State Department this morning a cablegram received from the Chinese Imperial Government, believed to have originated with the Chinese war department, which disclaimed any responsibility of the Imperial Government for the Boxers' trouble and asserted that the engagement at Tien-Tsin was a direct result of the bombardment of the Taku forts by the foreigners

500,000 RUSSIANS READY.

Officials Learn of Vast Forces on the Siberian Frontier.

Washington Dispatch.

The naval intelligence office is in receipt of some interesting information from sources of advice on the Asiatic station.

It is in the form of a long report giving the extent and location of the Russian military force in Asia. It is shown that the Czar has extended an enormous military cordon along the 7,000 miles of Asiatic frontier. Garrisons have been established along the system of military railroads from Batum, on the Black Sea, to Vladivostok, on the Pacific Ocean. At the former place is a heavy garrison quartered in an impregnable fortress.

Along the Persian frontier the record shows that there are more than 100,000 Cossacks; at Kizilavat are are more than 1,000 soldiers; at Askaband, 6,000; at Merv, 7,000; at Kushk, 40,000; at Charjury, 1,000; at Oxus, 3,000; at Samarkand, 6,000; at Khojand, on the main line, intended eventually to reach Pekin, 1,000; at Port Arthur, 20,000; at the present terminus of the Trans-Caspian branch, 9,000; at Nikolskoe, 20,000; at Khabarobsk, 20,000.

At other places are smaller garrisons, the total force along the Asiastic frontier maintained by Russia being fully half a million soldiers. Added to this is an admirable system of supply service, the transportation department, which includes fully 10,000,000 horses and camels for carrying provisions and forage across the desert.

A Prize for a Name.

A few weeks ago the Moore Optical and Talking Machine Company begun the publication af a monthly paper advertising their business, and offered, as a prize for the suggestion of the most appropriate name for the paper, a pair of the best quality of spherical lenses. A number of names were suggested, and today a committee of disinterested persons decided upon the Greensboro Optical Journal as the most appropriate.

This name was suggested by Miss Myrtle L. Abbott, who wins the prize.

Col. Kase's Funeral.

The funeral of Col. J. D. Kase was held in the First Presbyterian church this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Smith, the pastor, made a short and feeling talk on the life and character of the deceased. The choir sang "Jesus, lover of my soul," and "Rock of Ages," while a solemn hush fell over the congregation. The remains were interred in Greene Hill.

THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN.

FEDERAL OFFICERS IN CONTROL.

When "Public Office Was a Public Trust." So Regarded Under Democratic Administration--While Greensboro's Postmaster Runs the Campaign, His Chief Clerk Runs the Postoffice.

It is well understood by the people of Greensboro and Guilford county that during the campaign four years ago, when Mr J. W. Forbis was postmaster at Greensboro, postmasters and Federal office holders generally were prohibited from taking any active part in politics. President Cleveland's motto was, "Public office is a public trust," and following out this dictum, his appointees received specific instructions to refrain from any participation whatever in political affairs. They were not allowed to attend political conventions as delegates, act on committees, or solicit or receive contributions for campaign purposes.

While Mr. Forbis was postmaster he received a special circular from the Postoffice Department calling his attention to these matters, saying that it was contrary to the spirit and intent of the civil service law for any person in the postal service to actively participate in politics. The instructions were followed to the letter by Mr. Forbis and the employees in the office.

In this year of grace, when Mark Hanna rules and Federal office holders manipulate the Republican party under his orders, affairs are entirely different. Conditions have changed, and instead of keeping out of politics, we see the most active workers and manipulators in the Republican party composed of public servants. In fact, this party's machinery may be said to be entirely in the hands of Federal officials. This fact within itself occasions no surprise to one acquainted with the methods of the Republican party in North Carolina, but when those in charge of the public utilities enter actively into the management of a campaign it does cause comment and criticism.

In speaking of this matter today a gentleman was reminded that Mr. Tyre Glenn, postmaster at Greensboro, is filling the position of chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee, with the consent and approval of the powers that be, and probably at their suggestion. Under Democratic administration, when public office was a public trust, it was not deemed proper for a man to use his official position to further the partisan ends of a political party or machine, but the Republican party in Guilford county is today depending upon such action for its hope of success at the polls. A part of the contents of Mark Hanna's "bar'l" are not only here, but a representative of a branch of the Federal government is looking after their distribution. And while the Republican county chairman gives orders to his lieutenants to see that all negroes are registered and makes dates for night speakings in school houses, Chief Clerk Burton runs the postoffice, where all the Democratic literature sent out in this county is handled.

Captain Dodson Ill.

Mr. W. C. Dodson, one of the Southern's conductors between Greensboro and Sanford, suffered a sudden attack of illness while out driving yesterday evening and is confined to his home on East Market street. He is suffering from congestian of the stomach. His physicians do not regard his condition as alarming and think he will be out in a few days.

Increased Force at the Postoffice.

Mr. James M. May, who has had charge of the news stand at the Hotel Guilford, this morning took a temporary position in the Greensboro postoffice as an extra clerk for a period of five weeks. After this he will work as a relief clerk.

AFTER SUB-TREASURY GOLD.

A Train Carrying $3,000,000 Was Wrecked This Morning Near Philadelphia by Robbers.

By Wire to the Telegram

Philadelphia July 11—A Baltimore and Ohio Washington Express for New York, was wrecked at 3:10 this morning outside of the city. The train carried three million dollars of gold for the New York sub-treasury. The switch was tampered with. Officials believe that it is the work of robbers. Nobody was hurt.

ASSAULTED COL. BARRINGER.

Revenge Causes a Man to Make a Mean and Cowardly Attack.

As Col. John A. Barringer was leaving Winston this morning he was cowardly assaulted by I. E. White, one of the prosecuting witnesses in the dispensary cases tried at the last term of Guilford court. Col. Barringer had just taken his seat, when White entered the car and struck him a blow on the back of the head, after which he jumped off the train. Col. Barringer had the train stopped and got off to follow his assailant. It is said that a passenger loaned him a revolver, but it was empty.

White went before a magistrate and submitted. The hearing has been postponed until Monday.

White's attack was probably caused from the fact that, as attorney for the defence, Col. Barringer attempted to break down his character while on the witness stand.

Fun Among Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows last night conferred the first and second degrees on a Mr. Todd, of Boston, who is temporarily sojourning in Greensboro. The degrees were conferred at the request of a lodge in Boston, where the candidate was initiated. The degree work is said to have been very good indeed. There was a good attendance of the members of the lodge.

TO ASSASSINATE M'KINLEY.

A Group of Spanish and Cuban Conspirators Concert a Scheme for That Purpose, but one of Them Weakened and Divulged It.

By Wire to the Telegram.

New York, July 11.—Chairman Odell, of the Republican executive committee, confirms the report that a plot to assassinate President McKinley has been discovered. Further than this he will not talk.

THE WORLD'S ACCOUNT.

The New York World's account of the plot is as follows:

"A plot to assassinate President McKinley has been frustrated. It was concocted by a group of Spanish and Cuban conspirators with headquarters in New York. One of the plotters weakened and sent a warning letter to a member of the Republican national committee. That letter was placed in the hands of Secretary Charles S. Dick, who referred it to Chairman Odell, of the New York State committee, for investigation Chairman Odell engaged a detective who speedly verified certain important allegations made in the warning letter. Thereupon Mr. Odell went to Mr. Dick, who laid the facts before Chairman Hanna.

Messrs. Dick and Hanna laid the whole matter before the President shortly before the departure for Canton. They instructed Mr. Odell to continue his investigation and cautioned him to work with the utmost secrecy.

Special detectives are guarding the President in Canton.

CHARLOTTE'S 15TH COTTON MILL.

State Charters the Barnhardt—Treasurer Worth's Showing of the North Carolina Road's Profits.

Special Correspondence of the Telegram.

Raleigh, July 11.—Today State treasurer Worth went to Greensboro to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Railway, in which the State has a $3,000,000 interest. It is a very valuable piece of property to the State, as well as to the Southern Railway, the lessee. The treasurer took with him a statement which shows that from 1881 to May 1900, the State raised in rentals for the road $2,992,555, and paid as interest to bondholders $2,770,011, leaving a balance of $221,545

A charter is granted by the State to Charlotte's fifteenth cotton mill, the Barnhardt. The capital is $50,000.

The Copperville Brick Company, composed of Raleigh men, yesterday began work at its plant, which is a few miles south of here The output is 50,000 a day. For several years the fire brickyards in Raleigh, which make only handmade brick, have been unable to supply the demand, though the penitentiary has aided them by making and selling locally two and one-half to three millions. This year 5,000,000 will be made at the penitentiary.

Manager R. C. Rivers, who for two seasons has been the lessee and manager of the Raleigh Academy of Music, has also secured the Goldsboro opera house and is remodeling the latter.

There have been notably few severe storms in the State this year, and so far as reported only three deaths and three fires due to lightning.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

The Informal Beginning Took Place in Lincoln Yesterday--Speeches by Bryan, Towne, and Weaver--Mr. Bryan Speaks on the Duty and Privilege of the Citizen.

Lincoln. Neb., July 10—The informal opening of the Democratic Presidential campaign took place in Lincoln today. Two ratification meetings, one in the afternoon conducted by the Populists and Silver Republicans of Nebraska, and one this evening conducted by the Democrats. William Jennings Bryan, Charles A. Towne, General James B. Weaver and other leaders of the parties, outlined the work of the campaign in the interest of Bryan and Stevenson. Probably thirteen thousand people, a good proportion from distant points in the State, listened to the speeches and paid homage to the leaders of the parties to which they owed allegiance, nearly 3,000 people packing the auditorium in the afternoon while 10,000 gathered in the capitol grounds in the evening. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Towne spoke at both meetings, although it was only their intention to deliver addresses only at the evening meeting, and their remarks forecasting as they did the fusion of the three. parties on the Democratic national ticket were received with unbounded enthusiasm. Mr. Stevenson who is Mr. Bryan's guest, was somewhat indisposed, and did not appear at the afternoon meeting. He was present at the evening meeting, however, and received an ovation.

The afternoon speakers were Mr Bryan, Congressman Shafroth, of Colorado, "Cyclone" Davis of Texas, former Assistant Secretary of the Interior Webster Davis, Charles A. Towne and General James B. Weaver. Mr. Bryan spoke last and only in response to repeated calls. He was wildly cheered as Chairman Edmiston introduced him as "Mr. Bryan of North America."

"I feel almost as if I ought to apologize for not being able to call myself a former Republican," said Mr. Bryan, amid laughter. Mr. Bryan then paid eloquent tribute to General Chas. A. Towne and Webster Davis, for Republicans, saying that he "wondered how the Republican who is not tied to his party by office could refuse to leave the party and cast his lot with those who believe in the Declaration of Independence here and in South Africa also."

"I simply want to say now that the campaign is begun so far as the tickets and platforms are concerned." Mr. Bryan continued, "and from now until election day it will be the duty of every citizen to take those before the country and weigh them. It will be the duty of every citizen to see where his duty lies. There is a privilege in being an American citizen, and there is a responsibility commensurate with the privilege. If we lived in a land where a king thought for us, we would feel no responsibility for the action of that king. But we live in a land where the citizen impresses his own opinion upon the Government, where the policy of the Government may be determined by the vote of one citizen. And I want to leave a thought with those who are to vote this fall I want every citizen to so vote as he would vote if he knew that his vote would determine this next election. (Applause.) Remember what it means. You vote in Nebraska and your vote may determine the vote of this State on the Presidential ticket and your State may determine the result. (Applause). Remember that your vote may determine this nation's position and that this nation will, in a large measure, determine the public opinion of the world on the doctrine that Governments come up from the people. (Great applause). For 124 years this nation has held before the world the light of liberty. For more than a century it has been an example to all the world. You tell me that we can now be indifferent to what is going on? You tell me that a man who lifts his voice against the doctrine of imperialism is pleading the cause of the Filipino? I tell you he is pleading the cause of 70,000,000 American citizens, aye, he is championing rights of the struggling masses of the world who look to America for an example. (Great applause). If every Filipino were to die the world would go on, but if this nation, the greatest republic of the world's history puts out its light, if this republic turns back to the doctrine which we loathed a century and a quarter ago, then to what nation of the world can the people look for hope and inspiration? So you ought to be proud that you are an American citizen, and are able to say 'If the Republic goes down, I am not to blame for its downfall.'"

Ice Cream at Smithville.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The last issue of a paper published at Smithville, a small village in the southern part of this county, had the following item: "There will be an ice cream supper given by Mrs. Susan Howard next Tuesday night, July 3, in the Christian church grove, to assist in raising funds for the funeral expenses of her husband."

Mr. Adams' Example of Perfidity.

Statesville Landmark.

The esteemed Republican candidate for Governor, Judge Adams, is a little reckless in handling the King's English and has a pronunciation that is all his own. While declaring against the wicked Democrats here yesterday he held aloft a Democratic handbook of the vintage of '98 and said that Chairman Simmons was offering $125 for each copy of this book extant (which statement he of course didn't expect anybody to believe), but that he (Adams) wouldn't take $225 for his copy. "I want to hand it down to my children," he shouted, "as a record of the 'per-fid-ity' of the Democratic party." "Perfidity," with the accent on the "fid," is good. When Judge Adams rolled it out it pleased Clay Chambers so that he responded: "Wha! Wha! Go 'cross!" "Perfidity," we must say, is a new one to us, but if it suits Judge Adams and his auditors we've no doubt it's all right.

BLOOD POISON.

Mercury AND Potash Make Wrecks, Not Cures

In some cases the external signs of Contagious Blood Poison are so slight that the victim is firmly within the grasp of the monster before the true nature of the disease is known. In other cases the blood is quickly filled with this poisonous virus and the swollen glands, mucus patches in the mouth, sores on scalp, ulcers on tongue, sore throat, eruptions on skin, copper colored splotches, and falling ha and eyebrows leave no room for doubt, as these are all unmistakable signs of Contagious Blood Poison.

Doctors still prescribe mercury and potash as the only cure for Blood Poison. These poisonous minerals never yet made a complete and permanent cure of Contagious Blood Poison. They drive the disease back into the system, cover it up for a while, but it breaks out again in worse form. These powerful minerals produce mercurial rheumatism and the most offensive sores and ulcers, causing the joints to stiffen and finger nails to drop off. Mercury and potash make wrecks, not cures, and those who have been dosed with these drugs are never after free from aches and pain.

S. S. S. acts in an entirely different manner, being a purely vegetable remedy; it forces the poison out of the system, and instead of tearing down, builds up and invigorates the general health. S. S. S. is the only antidote for this specific virus, and therefore the only cure for Contagious Blood Poison. No matter in what stage or how hopeless the case may appear, even though pronounced incurable by the doctors, S. S. S. can be relied upon to make a rapid, permanent cure. S. S. S. is not a new, untried remedy; an experience of nearly fifty years has proven it a sure and unfailing cure for this disease. It is the only purely vegetable blood medicine known.

Mr. H. L. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large, red splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regained my lost weight, became stronger, and my appetite improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass."

WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1900.

WHY?

Thirteen months ago there were eight barrooms in Greensboro; there was no pretense that they accomplished any good for business or morals. Not one frequenter, not one patron, not one owner, of them could have been found to say that in his heart he believed them to be of any real benefit to the community. They were run solely for the money that came to the individuals who operated them. Not only was it impossible to find anyone who could show, or even believe, that they were of benefit, but there were thousands who believed, upon the most overwhelming evidence that they were an unmitigated evil. An effort was begun to close them and in their stead to substitute one place for the sale of liquors, upon the theory that its sale is at present a necessary evil, but that the evil of it can be mitigated by taking away the social feature, the treating habit, by closing at sun down, and by diverting the profits from individual pockets to the public treasury to be used in useful ways. This work was done

After thirteen months, what? Why, here are two factions of our citizens fighting on the question of whether this one place shall be closed, the profits taken from the public good and put into the pockets of bar-keepers, and the eight or ten bars opened all day, and largely all night and Sunday, too, and all the enticing allurements to young men be re-established and regilded. Who are leading the sid of those demanding this? The barkeepers and their friends. Who are leading the other side who oppose the re-opening of the saloons? The ministers of the town. Now we come to the WHY of the question.

Why are the whiskey dealers moving heaven and earth to get the saloons back? Because—it is unnecessary to say—they want the money that's in it. Do they claim to be working for the good of the community? They are not hypocrites enough to claim that.

Why do the ministers of Greensboro seek to retain the dispensary rather than to have the saloons opened again? Will it be any money in their pockets? Will their salaries be increased? Will some one pay them for the time, labor and anxiety they have expended? No man is knave enough to answer yes. Then we must conclude, what everybody already knows, that they are in this work for the good they see in it for the community and for their people. So we have on one side, leaders actuated by hopes of selfish gain, not even professing to be working for the public good. On the other side a leadership working without hope or desire for personal gain.

Following each set of leaders are a large number of persons, and each of these should enquire carefully why he is following the leaders he has selected—of course we mean now such of our citizens who are following from conscientious motives and a desire to do the right thing. There are a large number who follow the saloon keepers because they hope to share in the profits directly or indirectly. Others follow them because they want merely to return to the wallow. Still others follow them through pride of opinion and through hatred of the other side. Neither of these three classes are we now appealing to, but to those who happen to be on that side—and there are some such—because they think they are doing the right thing. If one such sees this, let him ask himself in all earnestness and seriousness: "Whom am I following, and why am I so following?"

Tomorrow we shall continue the discussion of the interesting subject of "Why."

EMPEROR BILL'S FIERY SNORT.

Amid the crash of republics and the erection of empires incident to the past week, we had overlooked a very pretty piece of current comedy. It was the speech of Emperor William of Germany, delivered at Wilhelm's Harem, to some German marines upon their departure for China. The press dispatches of the day made mention of it, but it was so rank that a part was suppressed. William warmed up to the occasion in genuine fourth of July style. But the common sense minister of foreign affairs has censored the young man's talk, and consequently it is something less foolish.

The Emperor is said to have declared that he should not rest satisfied, so great was his indignation at the murder of Ketteler, until the German flag floated from the palace in Pekin, and vengeance had been wreaked upon the Chinese, presumably without discrimination, the only qualification being that the women and children should be spared, but with this exception, blood must flow, in streams presumably, before vengeance was appeased; there must be cutting and slaying and slashing. The speech sounded all the world like one which we could imagine coming from the mouth of one of William's ancestors of three hundred years ago upon embarking upon a foray against an arrogant neighbor. From such a source it would have been but the eloquence of the time, but from the mouth of the head of a great, humane, and civilized nation, it is buffoonery pure and simple. Emperor William is a bad egg anyway, he has always been, perhaps always will be. He is not worthy of his people.

With all due respect for Mr. McCulloch, we must say that his proposition to circulate petitions for prohibition during the present fight is childish. He has no doubt been working for prohibition all his life, with about the same effect upon the whiskey traffic as the evening zepher has upon the Rocky Mountains. Now, a scheme arises which diminishes, though it does not abolish, the traffic, recognizing that Mr. McCulloch and his friends have been failing to do that all their lives, and would continue to so fail till doomsday. This new thing is something; the best that can be had, yet Mr. McCulloch sniffs the breeze from afar and will have nothing to do with it. Every man knows that the moment the dispensary closes eight or a dozen bars will be opened. This fight is for the dispensary or for the barrooms; it will be one or the other, and to the help of one or the other Mr. McCulloch will be contributing.

The Evening Tribune is a new six-column, four-page daily, just begun at Concord by Messrs. Benson & Hurley. It takes a press service, and presents a neat appearance. We wish it abundant success.

BLOOMERITE CONFEESSION.

Her Pleasures of Emancipation from the Thralldom of Prude Fashion.

The step from the regular female cycling dress to bloomers seems to be a very short one, yet there is considerable hesitation in making the change. There are very few women who have the courage to do it, and those who have made it describe the change in such a way as to place a damper on the spirits of those who are eagerly in line awaiting a favorable opportunity to make the transition. In view of the fact that the bloomer adherents still maintain that the rational costume will yet have its day, and in view of the fact that in France the bloomer costume is all the rage, it seems as though the riders of this country are rather slow in making the change.

However, it is not the purpose of this article to urge the adoption of the rational cycling costume. The intention is only to speak of the courage required to make the change. The Countess Brooke, who is an enthusiastic bicyclist, has written of her adoption of bloomers, and the way she expresses herself will undoubtedly prove of interest.

"For some time I wore my bloomers only when riding," said she, "but by easy degrees I completely abandoned the wearing of skirts, except, of course at dinner, in the evening, when receiving and paying ceremonious calls. I was in the proud enjoyment of my newly found and absolutely comfortable costume the whole day. I cannot say that I attained this happy result without many remonstrances from lady friends, whose worship of Mrs. Grundy partook of the most abject and thorough character The usual anguments leveled against a woman who adopts what its opponents call a masculine dress were advanced in my case without avail. I had tasted the pleasures of emancipation from the thraldom of inconvenient and unnecessary fashion, and I did not mean to abandon my freedom. In the boudoir, in the kitchen, in the kennels, in the menagerie, in the fields and on the roads, I was daily finding fresh evidences of the comfort and usefulness of my bloomer costume."

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Place of the Shark's Mouth.

No doubt the shark's mouth is placed so much beneath the projecting muzzle, under which also the nostrils lie, that it may serve its proper purpose in the best way. In all records of the habits of this fish we are told that it can, and does, bite out large chunks of flesh from the dead bodies of whales, and even from living victims of its attack; and it is easily seen that if its mouth was like those of other fishes the necessary leverage would be lacking. A further reason seems to be that the shark by this peculiar position of its mouth is compelled to turn upon its back to strike, and is thus able to deliver its onset from below with more deadly effect. This formidable strength of jaw is backed up by a most terrible array of teeth, of which in some species there are as many as six rows all round. Each tooth is saw-edged and pointed, and some of the largest are as much as two inches in breadth at their base. These lie flat against the jaws, and can be raised by separate muscles at will, so that, as the shark darts upon its prey, they spring on end, as a cat's claws are stuck out from its paws. This arrangement will not allow anything once bolted to return, so that a shark's mouth is a veritable death-trap.

Pillars of Sand.

The deserts of Arabia are specially remarkable for their pillars of sand which are raised by the whirlwinds, and have a very close resemblance in their appearance to waterspouts.

Her Fortune in Mint.

A little woman up in Michigan carries on a very remunerative business raising mint. She is Mrs. Mary Weber, and she inherited the business from her father. Some of the mint is raised in hot beds, and these are the objects of constant care. The profitable season is between the months of May and October, and June the best month of all. The mint roots are set out in May, and the proprietress' time is given to them from that date until late in the autumn. She clips and bunches the mint in the afternoon and evening, and the morning is given to sales. She drives to the leading hotels and makes the sales herself. It is not necessary to solicit custom. The men who patronized her father give their patronage to the daughter.

Mrs. Weber, like the wise business woman she is, refuses to say how much the prolific mint bed yields, but it is safe to say that she keeps the big house "going" and puts aside the desired sum in provision for a "rainy day." She has supplemented her income by dealing in lemonade straws. Every summer she drives into the country for a radius of twenty miles in search of rye straw that will serve that purpose. If she finds the kind she desires she buys it in the field.

NO GUNS IN COURT.

Judge Cantrill Orders Everybody to be Searched as They Come Into Court. Trial of the Goebel Murderers Begun, and the Court Doesn't Want Any Shooting.

Georgetown, Ky., July 10.—Judge Cantrill repeated his order before the court session began this morning in the Goebel murder case that all persons entering the tribunal chamber be searched for concealed weapons Ex-Governor Brown looked very angry when the officers went through his pockets this morning, but submitted. The relations of the two men continue strained and the judge almost invariably rules against his contentions. Preparations are being hastened by the attorneys of Henry E. Youtsey, the Newport man, for the calling of his case, provided the Powers case is passed. Judge Nelson, his attorney, was at the jail today in consultation with Youtsey. Mrs. Youtsey is with her husband and he feels confident of acquittal. He stated this morning that there is nothing in the charge against him and that he is anxious to have his trial at once.

Strong guard is kept over Wharton Golden, the chief witness for the prosecution. Up to this time he has stopped with his brother-in-law, Rev. Dr. Stamper, in the country, but now he is kept at the Wellington Hotel, where he has a suite of rooms. Golden walks the streets under guard.

Golden implicates Youtsey as firing the shot and Powers as giving him the key to the office of the Secretary of State. The defense alleges that he has been hired by the prosecution. There is much feeling between the Powers and Golden factions. Capt. B. B. Golden, brother of Wharton Golden, arrived here this morning with a number of friends Powers' friends, excepting his fugitive brother, Jno. L Powers, are here. Both factions are heavily armed, leaving their arms in the daytime at convenient points in the town.

A. H. Hinkle, of Barboursville, arrived here this morning. He is the man who arrested fugitive Jno. L. Powers in Knox county last week and lost his position as deputy sheriff on that account. Hinkle said:

"I have been an officer of the law in Knox county for ten years. I helped to put down the Slusher-Smith feud, the sheriff refusing the office unless I could be his deputy. I served three years as deputy United States marshal under Jim Blackburn and I felt that I was doing my duty in arresting Powers. This sheriff called me into his office when Powers was released on a writ of habeas corpus and told me I could go. He admitted that my discharge was for making the arrest. I will yet have Powers.'

The bullet which is alleged to have killed Goebel was exhibited here yesterday. The bullet is still in the wood as it was found in the tree, with only the end protruding. It is claimed that the bullet is surrounded by a copper covering, and that this covering alone would have made it fatal had it passed through any part of the body. Several bullet holes have been found through the floor and in the carpet taken from the Secretary of State's office. One theory is that these shots were fired in this room at the time Goebel was wounded. Others are that they were fired by soldiers quartered in the room after the tragedy.

COUNTY AND DISPENSARY

The County Records Completely Refute the Theory that the County's Profits from the Dispensary are Used to Prosecute Violators of the Dispensary Law.

QUESTION.—Does the County of Guilford receive more revenue from the Dispensary than it did from the saloons, and if so, how much more?

ANSWER.—The City and County records make the following showing:

City of Greensboro received from	saloons	from July '98 to July '99			$4,000
" " "	dispensary	" '99 to " 1900			8,000
County of Guilford "	saloons	" '98 to " '99			800
" " "	dispensary	" '99 to " 1900			2,500

For the accuracy of the above figures reference is made to the treasurers of the City of Greensboro and the County of Guilford.

It will be seen from the above that the County receives from the Dispensary more than three times as much revenue as it did from the saloons.

The above figures also show that the County receives about ONE-FOURTH of the entire revenue which accrued from the dispensary, whereas the County received only one-sixth of the entire revenue which accrued from the saloons.

QUESTION.—Have prosecutions under the Dispensary Law cost the County more or less than under the saloon system?

ANSWER.—The records of the Superior Court Clerk and the Minutes of the Board of Commissioners of Guilford County make the following showing, and answer conclusively this question:

Year 1898-'99—Saloon System.

August Term, 1898	$ 60.60
December Term, 1898	00.00
February Term, 1899	64.34
June Term, 1899	113.21
	238.15
Deduct fines paid	10.00
Net balance paid by county for prosecution under saloon system	$228.15

Year 1899-1900—Dispensary System.

Angust Term, 1899	$ 73.67
December Term, 1899	62.25
February Term, 1900	00.00
June Term, 1900	202.17
	338.09
Deduct fines paid	200.00
Net balance paid by county for prosecution under dispensary system	$138.09

N. B.—The net cost of prosecutions to Guilford County for retailing for the year from July 1st, 1898 to July 1st, 1899, under the the saloon system was $90.06 more than for the year just past under the dispensary system.

The above statement does not include the costs in those cases where the defendant was taxed with the costs, and paid the same, there being nothing paid out by the county in such cases.

The above statement does not include jury fees, as it was impossible to separate from the total amount paid jurors the amount paid in retail cases in either year; but the Minutes of the County Commissioners show that the total jury fees for the criminal terms of the year 1898-99 amounted to $2168.30, whereas the total jury fees for the criminal terms of the year 1899-1900 amount to $2406.10, the difference being only $237.80.

It is evident from the above that there is little if any difference in the cost to the county of prosecutions for retailing under the dispensary system as compared with the saloon system.

STRANGE FRIENDS.

Animals Entirely Different Stick Together Like People.

Horses are nearly always gentle and so it is not surprising to find friendship between them and smaller animals though once in a while the choice of their companions is not a little strange. Many are the cases of mutual affection existing between horses and cats, the most famous being that between the Godolphin Arab and a black cat, which on the death of the horse friend refused to leave the body, and when on being dirven away went to the hayloft, refused food and died of a broken heart.

More strange, however was a case in which a horse struck up an acquaintance with a hen and displayed immense satisfaction whenever she came into his stall and rubbed against his legs, clucking greeting to her friend.

Dogs and horses generally get on well together, but the following story proves that in some cases the friendship is something more than a mere toleration of each other. A carriage horse, accompanied by his stable companion, a retriever dog, to which he was exceedingly attached, was drinking at a trough near the exchange. While the dog was waiting for his friend to finish his draught a large mastiff picked a quarrel with him which ended in a fight. The mastiff, as may be supposed, had the best of the battle, and the retriever was severely bitten. The horse, the moment he heard his friend's cry broke from the man who was holding him, hurried to the rescue, and after kicking the mastiff across he street, returned to the trough and finished his drink.

Here is an interesting experiment to show the expansiveness of heated air:

Take any kind of a bottle having a flat rim at the mouth of it. Put it first in water that is quite warm thoroughly warmng the glass. Empty all the water out of the bottle and immerse it to the neck in the hot water holding it there until the air inside the bottle is of the temperature of the water. Then fill a saucer or shallow dish with water and stand the bottle upside down in the dish.

As the expanded air in the bottle contracts in cooling the water from the dish will rise to fill the vacuum inside. Just to the extent that the air in the bottle is heated will the water rise in the neck and shoulder of the bottle as the heated air cools. Using a thermometer in the water and experimenting from say 100 degrees up to the boiling point, one may make a very interesting series of scale marks on the side of the bottle. For instance, if 100 degrees will raise the water one inch in the bottle, 125 and 150 degrees will raise it proportionately higher. The lines and the registrations on the bottle may be made with a pen if the side of the bottle be thoroughly dried.

Who Can Tell?

All hail to Young America. These three
Are posing for their pictures as you see.
Young Bill, who on the left appears
With placid smile beyond his years,
A baker or a President may be.

And little Tommy in the dirty jeans,
Who doesn't quite get on to what it means,
Has naught but mud pies on his mind.
Some loftier object may he find—
Perhaps a Judgeship in the Philippines.

While Nellie, sturdy Nellie, sitting there
And thinking, "Take my picture. I don't care,"
Will run her race, and live her life,
A lone old maid or happy wife—
An independent woman anywhere.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure ond so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $I per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Biggest and Best.

THE GATE CITY STEAM LAUNDRY is now prepared to do all kinds of laundry in the very best style. Having recently put in a large new mangle with a lot of other new machinery we can afford to do your work as cheap as can be done anywhere and guarantee entire satisfaction. We have also changed our wagons from green and red to white—they are not old wagons painted over, so please note the change and watch for the WHITE WAGONS—they will not hurt you and see that your laundry goes to THE GATE CITY, THE BIGGEST AND BEST,

WE ARE ORIGINATORS:

Not Imitators!

White Delivery Wagons have been a distinguishing mark of the Greensboro Steam Laundry for a number of years. Our customers have learned to "look out for the white wagons."

Competitors have seen fit to imitate our wagons, therefore we deem it wise to make a change.

Our wagons are now in the shop. About May 1st they will come out green, our forme color. In the mean time would respectfullly request our friends and patrons ta BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle. To avoid any possible confusion, in future our wagons will be lettered.

BITS OF NEWS.

A Few of Today's Happenings--Notes of Interest.

Mrs. J. W. Lindau is confined to her home by illness. She has fever.

Judge R. M. Douglas is making some improvements on his house on Asheboro street.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will run an excursion to Winston next Wednesday.

A lawn party will be given at Buffalo church, north of town, tonight. A number of Greensboro people will attend.

The candidates of the two parties in Guilford county opened their joint canvass this afternoon at Hodgin's Store. The candidates went out this morning, accompanied by several friends, who went along to see how their favorites start off.

In Winston yesterday evening a white man by the name of H. H. Pickens was seriously injured by falling to the pavement from the top of an electric light pole. The left side of his skull was cracked. He was carried to a hospital and is still unconscious.

Mr. Frank J. Thornton this morning released a basket of carrier pigeons for Mr. F. E. Whalen, of Woonsocket, R. I The piegons flew around in a circle six times, after which they flew off in a northeasterly direction. A few days ago the same pigeons flew from Amherst, Va., to Woonsocket in le s than twelve hours.

The trial of the Democratic registrars, Thompson and Wall, is still going on in Winston. A 'phone message from that place at 4 o'clock announced that the examination of witnesses had not been concluded, and stated that the general opinion was that Commissioner Beckerdite would bind them over to Federal Court, regardless of the evidence.

Had Three Wives Visit Him.

Jimmy Farrell, who is locked up in the county jail at Detroit, Mich., charged with being disorderly, is a wizard with the ladies. He has a pug nose and red whiskers. Every day three wives call upon him, meeting at the jail and going up to the cell together. All three claim to be married to Farrell, and he does not deny it, receiving their presents of pipes, tobacco, preserves, cakes, etc., with a bored expression. They are known by numbers with the jail officials. No. 1 is a colored woman, No. 2 a prepossessing white woman, and the third is a white woman old enough to be his mother. The strange trio are not jealous, and even greet each other with warmth. and when the daily interview is over leave the jail together, supporting the colored woman, who is a cripple. Farrell was recently stabbed by a jealous colored rival.

The Course of True Love.

Charles Loth, aged 26, was charged recently with the abduction of Olivia B. Newton, less than 15 year old, at Richmond, Va. They went to the station ostensibly to take the train to elope. A rain storm came up and they got in a box car. She said that he detained her there all night, and was so indignant the next day that she refused to have anything more to do with him. Her parents brought a charge of abduction, and the girl told her story to the jury and declared her determination to have no further dealings with her former lover.

Loth was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Recently he secured a new trial. The young woman was seated in the court room with her mother and father while the hearing was going on, and testified, this time, in favor of Loth. They had evidently met in some way. While the young woman's parents were absorbed in the question of granting bail and release of Loth, Olivia stole out of the court room to the street, where, it is thought, a cab was in waiting. As soon as the bail and release was granted, Loth hurried out of the court room and joined the young woman. They slipped away so quietly that they were not missed until both were wanted for some further formality. Their absence dumbfounded the parents of the girl and the officers of the court.

They caught a train for Weldon, and will, no doubt, return man and wife, and Loth, instead of serving time in the penitentiary, will only answer for contempt of court.
